Your ordering options at a glance

Webshop

Add products to your cart, request quotes, or reorder with ease.

PunchOut catalogs (coming Q1 2026)

Shop directly from within your ERP system (e.g., Coupa, Jaggaer) and send your cart back for checkout in one click.

EDI integration

Automate order processing, invoicing, and confirmations with Electronic Data Interchange (EDI).

API connectivity

Real-time integration with your system via secure APIs.

Procure-to-Pay (P2P) integrations

Seamless connection with your organization's procurement system.

Online marketplaces

Access our products on trusted platforms like ZAGENO, scientist.com, Quartzly, LabViva, Prendio, and more.

Benefits of integrating lab procurement solutions

Connecting our systems to your internal purchasing workflows delivers measurable benefits:

- Eliminate manual order entry and reduce data entry errors
- Access real-time product data, pricing, and documentation (CoA, SDS)
- Automate ordering, approval, and invoicing workflows
- Centralize purchasing data for easier reporting and analysis
- Compare products and prices across suppliers

Support throughout your procurement journey

Our service doesn't end at checkout. We offer dedicated scientific and technical assistance before, during, and after purchase:

- Email support: Fast, expert responses to technical or procurement queries
- Live chat: Real-time help from our scientific and product specialists
- Video consultations: Schedule one-on-one virtual calls with our team
